YELLOW SPRINGS	A Lion in the House	A LION IN THE HOUSE helps viewers understand the challenges of cancer's immediate burdens, as well as its aftermath. The unfolding drama shows how families move beyond fighting the disease, and how lives must be restarted, redefined and reclaimed. Issues range broadly from a child's need to get back on track after months of missed school to a mother's need to create meaning out of her child's ordeal and a family's need to reconnect with each other. A LION IN THE HOUSE goes inside the drama of individual and family survival and powerfully portrays the wisdom of children who have faced death. The series also highlights the critical needs that young survivors and families have for ongoing support from health professionals, educators, youth development specialists and other community- and faith-based organizations.	726 Xenia Avenue Yellow Springs, OH 45387	http://www.itvs.org/cm itvs@itvs.org www.survivoralert.org For more information amy@kcp.uky.edu or 859-219-0772 x265.
